Dear Fr. Higgins,

As a friend of Fr. James Foley I am aware of his current standing as a priest of the Archdiocese of Boston.

I respectfully suggest that His Eminence, in conjunction with Fr. Joseph Shields, consider appointing Fr. Foley as an "adjunct member" of the Missionary Society of Saint James the Apostle.

Earlier today, at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Saint James Society, it was noted that income from preaching by missionaries has decreased because there is an insufficient number of priests available to do the task.

Fr. Foley could be asked to do as many as 40 – 50 weekend preaching assignments a year for the Society. This would be a potential economic boon to the Society and it would help to fill a void in Jim's life.

I deeply appreciate all that you are doing to help Jim during this difficult time of his life.

Sincerely,

Bob Hennessey
