REVEREND JOHN P. SCHANZ

Obituary Condolences

The Reverend John P. Schanz, 85, died Friday, April 16, 2010 at his residence, Westlake Woods, 3302 W. Lake Rd. Born in Erie on June 30, 1924, he was the only child of the late Conrad and Helen (Haas) Schanz. His home parish was St. Andrew Church in Erie, and after graduating from St. Andrew grade school, he graduated from Cathedral Prep in 1942, from St. Charles College in Catonsville, Md. in 1944, and from Catholic University in 1950. He received a Ph.D. from Western Reserve University in Cleveland in 1957. Father Schanz was ordained in Erie in 1950, and during his ministry, served as administrator of St. Elizabeth parish in Smethport from June until September 1950, then spent the remaining years of his active ministry at Gannon University, and assisting at Holy Cross parish in Fairview. He retired in 1996. He is survived by several cousins. Friends may call at the Brugger Home for Funerals, 1595 W. 38th St. at Greengarden Blvd., Sunday from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. and 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Monday at 11 a.m. at St. Andrew Church, with Bishop Donald Trautman presiding. Burial will be on the family lot in Trinity Cemetery. Memorials may be made to St. Andrew Parish, 1116 W. 7th St., Erie, PA 16502. #### Important Safety Information

- ANORO is only approved for use in COPD. ANORO is NOT approved for use in asthma.
- People with asthma who take long-acting adrenergic agonist (LABA) medicines, such as vilanterol (one of the medicines in ANORO), may have an increased risk of death from asthma that is not known if LABA medicines increase the risk of death in people with COPD.
- Call your healthcare provider if breathing worsens over time while using ANORO.
- Get emergency medical care if your breathing worsens quickly or if use of your rescue inhaler does not relieve your breathing problems.
- Do not use ANORO to treat sudden breathing problems. Always have a rescue inhaler with you to treat sudden symptoms.
- It is not known if ANORO is safe and effective in pregnant women.
