

Photo by LaFlamme

DELISLE FAMILY OBSERVES ANNIVERSARIES—Front, Mrs. Louis Denis, Lewiston; the Rev. Sister Alexis du Sacre Coeur of Biddeford, the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexis Delisle, Charles Delisle, all of Lewiston, and Mrs. John Dumais of Salem, Mass.

At rear, Alexis Delisle, Jr., Miss Albertine, Miss Marie, Lewiston; Mrs. Rosario Gosselin, Auburn, Miss Rose-Alma, Lewiston, and Louis-Philippe, Auburn.

Lewiston Couple Observes 50th Wedding Day

Lewiston, July 13—Mr. and Mrs. Alexis Delisle, 137 East Avenue, Lewiston, observed the 50th anniversary of their marriage, last week-end, with an all-day celebration that centered around their church and home. On that same day, a son, Alexis, Lewiston garage owner, observed the 22nd anniversary of his marriage; and a twin son and daughter, Charles Delisle, superintendent of the Lewiston fire alarm system, and Mrs. John Dumais of Salem, Mass., observed their birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Delisle were married in Canada and have lived in Lewiston over 35 years. Mr. Delisle is a carpenter who is still occasionally active at his trade.

For their golden jubilee, Mr. and Mrs. Delisle attended a special mass in Holy Cross Church, and a family breakfast was served at the home immediately after. Open house was held during the day, there was dinner in the evening for about 50 guests, and a reception at the home that same evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Delisle have 10 children including a daughter who is a nun with the Sisters of the Presentation of Mary, the same religious order that teaches the parochial school at Holy Cross parish. This nun, the Rev. Alexis du Sacre Coeur is stationed at Biddeford. One daughter lives at Salem, as noted above, and the others all live in Lewiston and Auburn. They are Alexis Jr., Mrs. Louis Denis, the Misses Albertine, Marie, Rose-Alma and Charles Delisle, all of Lewiston; Mrs. Rosario Gosselin and Louis-Philippe Delisle of Auburn.