'To Know, Love and Serve God'

Bennington Catholic High School seniors heard Rev. Gerard D. Barry, assistant pastor at St. Augustine's Parish, South Boston, baccalaureate speaker, tell them "a Catholic education is a concise answer to the question 'what are you for?'"

Father Barry's answer was "to know, love and serve God in this world."

He said parents send their children to Bennington Catholic High School so that they may know God and serve him on earth and to know God in Heaven.

Graduation exercises will be held Sunday at 8 p.m. in the BCHS gymnasium. Guest speaker will be Rev. William Morgan, administrator of St. John's Parish in Canton, Mass.

Both Father Barry and Father Morgan were classmates of Rev. Gerard Brennan, principal of BCHS, in seminary.
