

Rev. Kenneth Robert Kauchek

October 14, 1946 - July 18, 2024

In Loving Memory of Reverend Kenneth Robert Kauchek

It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Fr. Ken, a devoted son, brother, uncle, godfather, friend, and servant of God, who peacefully joined the heavenly choir on July 18, 2024 at the age of 77, after a valiant battle with cancer.

Fr. Ken was born on October 14, 1946, in Highland Park, Michigan, the youngest son of Madeline (née Quinlan) and Jacob (Jack) Kauchek. The family of four which included Fr. Ken's beloved older brother Larry, lived first on Strasburg St. in Detroit before settling in the Grosse Pointe area where Fr. Ken enjoyed a happy childhood.

A dedicated intellectual and a voracious reader, Fr. Ken excelled in academic endeavors as evidenced by his facility with languages and his many degrees: BA in Philosophy from his cherished Duquesne University in Pittsburgh, Masters in Theology, Masters in Divinity, Licentiate and Doctorate in Canon Law from the Gregorian University in Rome, Italy, and finally a Doctorate in Ministry.

Ordained as a Catholic priest on February 28, 1976, Fr. Ken embarked on a remarkable journey, touching countless lives throughout his 48 years of faithful service. His compassionate spirit and innate ability to connect with people from all walks of life made him a beloved figure in our community.

Fr. Ken served as an associate pastor at Guardian Angels, Sacred Heart Dearborn, and Christ the King parishes. In 1982 he became pastor of Epiphany, followed by St. Anastasia, Our Lady Star of the Sea, and finally St. James and St. Mary's parishes. Fr. Ken dedicated himself to guiding and nurturing his parishioners, providing spiritual solace, and instilling hope in their hearts. His homilies were not mere words but a source of inspiration, encouraging all to live lives of compassion, humility, and love. He was a true shepherd, always ready to lend an empathetic ear, offer guidance, and extend a helping hand to those in need.

Teaching was a passion of his and he was on faculty at Sacred Heart Major Seminary, St Cyril and Methodius Seminary and Madonna University. He was certified in Ignatian Spirituality and served as a spiritual director to many and led more than 500 individual directed retreats as well as more than 200 group retreats for parishes and other organizations. His love of travel propelled him to lead countless pilgrimages to Europe and the Holy Land.

Beyond the walls of the church, Fr. Ken actively participated in various charitable endeavors, most recently co-founding Gianna House, a residency program for pregnant young women, and mothers with new babies which offered not only safe housing but also parenting and life skills. Fr. Ken recognized the importance of living out the Gospel message through acts of kindness and service. His commitment to social justice and advocacy for the marginalized were a testament to his unwavering faith and dedication.

Fr. Ken was a lover of all sports, both as a participant and a fan. He enjoyed going to the gym, playing tennis, and watching the Lions and Tigers. He relished watching the resurgence of Detroit, the city he called home, frequenting new restaurants and attending the Detroit Symphony Orchestra concerts as often as possible.

Fr. Ken's warm smile, gentle demeanor, and unwavering faith touched the lives of many, leaving an indelible mark on our hearts. He was a beacon of hope and a source of strength in times of despair. His love for God and his flock was evident in every aspect of his life, making him a cherished figure in our community.

While we mourn the loss of a truly remarkable man, we take solace in the knowledge that Fr. Ken is now at peace, embraced by the heavenly love he so faithfully preached and rejoined with his cherished family, his parents, Madeline and Jack, and his older brother, Larry.

Fr. Ken is survived by his family: sister-in-law Ann Marie Kaucke, his niece Kendra Goodrich (William), spiritually adopted son, Mark Calvird (Dorothy) and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews from both the Quinlan and Kaucke families, godchildren, friends, and the countless lives he touched throughout his ministry.

Visitation will be held at St. Anastasia Church located at 4571 John R Rd., Troy, Michigan 48085 starting at 5pm on Tuesday, July 30, 2024. A prayer service will follow at 7pm. The Mass of the Resurrection will be held at St. Anastasia Church on Wednesday, July 31 at 11:00 am. Fr. Ken will lie in state starting at 10:00 am and a video presentation will commence at 10:45 am. The burial of the urn will take place the following day, Thursday, August 1st at St. Mary's Church Cemetery in Maidstone, Ontario, Canada at 12:00 pm.

To watch the livestream of the funeral mass, please click here.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests donations to be made to the Solanus Casey Center, 1780 Mt. Elliott St., Detroit, Michigan 48207 and Gianna House Parenting and Pregnancy Center, 21357 Redmond Ave. Eastpointe, Michigan 48021 in Fr. Ken's memory.

Rest in peace. Let us honor Fr. Ken's memory by continuing his legacy of love, compassion, and service to others. You will be deeply missed, but your legacy will live on forever.

Fr. Ken had a remarkably pastoral way of beginning Mass. Before the opening procession, he always took a few minutes to walk among the congregation, welcome everyone, and ask how they were doing. Were there any birthdays, anniversaries, new babies, or other special occasions? Was there anyone from out-of-town visiting relatives or just passing through to another destination and choosing to worship with us? That and maybe a joke or two, a personal anecdote, and a short introduction to the focus of the day's Mass. He truly made everyone feel like family and become personally engaged in what was about to happen. Fr. Ken often spoke about a God that was always approachable, loving, and forgiving rather than one of guilt, fear, and condemnation. His homilies and teachings appealed to our intelligence rather than obligation. One always came away with a new perspective, a new insight, a new hope in hearing them. In daily life, Fr. Ken was a source of guidance, comfort, humility, compassion, and enduring friendship to all who knew him. His smile would always light up a room. His unshakable faith in and advocacy for the worth of the undervalued, as well as his personal generosity of time and treasure, gave renewed hope and life to those who thought that their "candle" may be running out. Even as he faced overwhelming and unwarranted adversity in later life, his strength, courage, and unshakable faith in God enabled him to humbly continue his service to those who needed him. On a personal note, Fr. Ken was a great dinner companion and conversationalist with a sense of humor that I often stretched to its limits. I'll miss you, Ken. Thank you for sharing your life with us. Not to question God's will but you left us way too soon. I hope everyone in the family you created among us in this world will be able to join you again someday. Rest in peace my friend, you earned it many times over.

We were at Notre Dame to meet John Paul II on this date in 1997. A family friend for many, many years. What a sad loss. May he rest in peace and his memory be eternal.

Fr. Ken had a gift for the most intriguing homilies, he had a talent for incorporating current day scenarios with the readings to make it more understandable. I remember one time at St. Anastasia he had the ushers bring in a 20 foot ladder to prove his point! I don't remember his point but I will never forget the ladder. He married my husband and I in 1991, baptized my son, and officiated my mom's funeral mass. We exchanged letters for years while he was at Manresa. May he rest in peace.

Just a follow up to my earlier post, I want to tell your family that the funeral Mass today was beautiful! What an amazing tribute to awesome person/priest Father Ken is! He was such a real life model of God's love and guidance and I will always be proud to say that I knew him... a real saint among us! Thank you for letting us all celebrate his beautiful life. What a tribute to him, I am sure he is smiling! Julie Ferrerio

On the Sunday evening our younger son Scott was to leave for the Marine Corps, Fr. Ken said to the Marine recruiter that Scott needed to be at Mass. Fr. Ken asked God and his angels to be with him at that Mass. Two years later, in 2008, Fr. Ken came to our home in the middle of the night to comfort us as a Marine casualty officer arrived. Fr. Ken celebrated Scott's Mass of the Resurrection after Scott died in the line of duty. Without Fr. Ken we could not have lived with the grief these 16 years. Thanks and prayers for the Manresa Jesuits who gave Ken a home with the peace of Our Lord.

I remember well our years at St. Anastasia when Fr. Davidson and Fr. Ken were pastors.... It was very soon clear that Fr. Ken was a gifted priest and homilist, and that he would bring many to a deeper love of Jesus and their Catholic faith. In short- Fr. Ken was instrumental in creating a faith- filled and close-knit community at St. Anastasia. He was beloved by all, especially the children of the parish...he had such a pastoral way with them - and they truly saw him as a father! And isn't that what a wonderful priest is to be, a Good Shepherd of his flock? He LOVED this parish and his parishioners, and the testament to his lasting presence and impact on people's lives was made very visible at his beautiful liturgy of New Life today. He pastored me beyond an unexpected and painful divorce, encouraged me towards my studies in theology, and Fr. Ken- at 60 years of age I earned my M.A. in Theology- largely because of your support and encouragement all those years ago when I didn't know how I would make it as a single mother. This was an excellent priest, a man, who suffered unjustly and needlessly...and we know he is now in the loving arms of Jesus. He lived his life to serve God - and he did it so very beautifully, despite the unjust hurdles and challenges thrown at him in later years. Fr. Ken- this scripture is for you: "Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when men revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so men persecuted the prophets who were before you. (Mt. 5:10-12) Well done, Good and Faithful Servant....

We will always remember Fr Ken as a friend, pastor, and unassuming shepherd! Some memories I shared with Fr Ken in early July: From the Sunday morning after we watched Ben-Hur as a young family, and my son, Paul, told you that you looked just like Ben-Hur, to your trip to Toronto with my daughter, Marie, and the teens on World Youth Day, and sleeping on the tarmac in the rain, to your co-officiating at Marie's wedding, to your advice when she went to college and when she was about to do a semester in Rome, to getting us tickets for Easter Mass in St Peter's square and other arrangements, and so on, our memories of you, your loving shepherding, and your homilies will be forever in our hearts. I love you and ask that God may bless you now and forever! Love from Mike DePetris

Our children all have fond memories of father Ken. I remember he wrote a letter of reference for my daughter trying to get into Michigan State (and she did get accepted). I remember at one mass father Ken played a scene from the movie titled "The Mission". That introduced me to the composer/conductor Ennio Morricone who I still listen to. Thanks father Ken for all the great things you did for our family and our church! May you rest with the angels, Bill Rundell

Father Ken was a spiritual companion, friend, mentor, and role model. I shall miss him greatly. He was my cheer leader and gave me incentive when I wanted to quit. When I wanted to quit he would tell me I couldn't because God wanted me to stay strong. When I would ask him what God wanted me to do he would tell me it was none of my business. He would just say to stay suited up and be ready to get in the game. I benefited from his wisdom, his strength and his courage, but most of all so did those I worked with. You are with God my friend.

FR. Ken was not only my priest at Epiphany, but also a friend of the family. My parents and children. He used to share many Sunday and holiday dinners with the family. My parents love him like a son. My brother from another mom. You will be missed. RIP

Ken and I were seminarians at the Holy Ghost Father Mission Seminary in Ann Arbor during our Freshman and Sophomore years. I had hoped to share a couple of old photos, but didn't have time to go through my old files before I left Florida yesterday. I still have an old yearbook from those days. I relished his friendship, his joie d'vivre, sharing in our youthful seminary activities, and his tales of growing up in an environment very different from mine. Something he once said stuck with me and makes me smile still: "My father once said 'watch your pennies - the dollars will take care of themselves.'" May he rest in peace. Rev. Thomas J. Our family had known Fr. Ken since my sons were in Cub Scouts and he had first come to St. Anastasia. He helped mentor them through the many levels of scouting, providing opportunities for them to earn the Ad Altari Dei medal as well as their Eagle Scout badges. They really looked up to him as a wonderful guide. He also mentored me through my theological education, challenging me to work through the many, many Seminary courses it took to earn an MA in Theology (Master of Arts) with a Concentration in Sacred Scripture, MAPS (Master of Arts in Pastoral Ministry) and all the course work to complete my D-Min (Doctor of Ministry). He never failed to positively encourage my efforts, praising and blessing my successes. His dear friendship exceeded all expectations when, though not well himself, he came to Troy Beaumont to pray with me and administer Last Rites and Holy Communion to my husband, Paul, a day and a half before he went to God. Fr. Ken was a man above men and a most holy priest in service to Our Lord. Thank you dear friend.

I had the chance to meet Ken for a brief encounter when they wanted my company to provide care for him. I knew from the first meeting that he was a very special, caring and loving person. I was saddened by his passing and I found out from the neighbor across the hall, a very special little blind lady who is my customer. She was extremely upset and was crying not understanding how a priest, a man of god can just die. I had a long meaningful conversation with her to make her understand that priests are human too. I assured her that Ken is now in a good place, near his maker he served with so much love and grace. I could tell from all the testimonies that he was a great person, a great priest that served the lord. God give him peace. Many blessings to his family and friends. Maria, homestead home health care

Father Ken was an inspiration to many of us. He captured us all in his homilies and so much more - with his teachings, his intellectual gifts, his humor, and most importantly understanding each of us and our needs. Years later as my husband and I moved on to Florida, we looked forward to his Christmas card and letter every Christmas. It was so good to stay in touch. I was baptized as a Methodist as a baby and confirmed in the Methodist Church as a teenager. Under the guidance of Father Ken, he showed me the way through catechism, joining St. Anastasia Catholic Church before my husband and I were married in the church. How inspirational was he throughout our journey, and not only was he our pastor, but became a lifelong friend of ours and our family. He will forever be missed. God bless, and may he rest in peace. His friendship was constant, for nearly 50 years... His mind was a delight to engage... His heart was pure... His faithfulness to God was towering and unshakeable... His steadfastness, determination, and optimism through great difficulty was beyond admirable... Though he is gone much too soon and the heart breaks, knowing that he is with the angels is a balm.

I feel so broken hearted that Rev. Ken is not with us anymore. He was a beam of bright light for our family at St. Mary's. His Homilies were captivating, he had a way of taking you on a journey through the Gospel's. He was only at St. Mary's for a short time, but in that short time he made a lasting impression. He managed to write us, and we corresponded over the years. We knew about the Gianna House and his hopes and ambitions for getting it going. He was such a wonderful man. I look back on his last Easter Mass at St. Mary's and all my family were in attendance for the first time since my parents passed away. Next to my brother, he was the biggest Lion's fan, now me and my husband are hooked. I am sure he will be putting in a question to God about them, "why couldn't they get to the Superbowl in my time." My favorite memory of Rev. Ken will be watching him say Mass. He seemed to have a glow around him and such a joyful look on his face as he did. And indeed, his homilies were very well done. I have met only a few priests who enjoyed Mass and service as much. Rev. Ken also enjoyed the St. Mary's Bell Choir led by Paula Savaglio. His favorite song by us was, Jesus Christ Is Risen Today. He was an inspiration to both of us in so many ways, Rest in Peace we Thank God for putting you on our path! Love, Michael and Nancy

I did not know Fr. Ken personally, however, his name and vision for Gianna House lives to this day. As a past president of the board at Gianna House, I have seen first-hand the grace and value of his mission and that of Sr. Diane Masson. Caring and serving the at-risk, young pregnant women who come to the Gianna House doors is a labor of love. That love was conceived in the idea Fr. Ken and Sr. Diane shared. God rest his soul and grant him the gifts of his labor and beliefs. Thank you for you vision Father. Jamie Spriet

Being a founder of Gianna House, the vision you had of providing a safe and loving home for women awaiting the birth of her child was just one example of your kindness and compassion. The picture of Fr. Ken emulates him so vividly. As he preached his hand was always close to him in his contemplation. A very brilliant, loving, caring, gentle, priest God gave us for many years. He emulated Jesus in such a perfect manner you would question if he was Jesus returning. The most perfect priest, the most perfect friend, always caring, always guiding, never judging, always forgiving. He was not only a good man, but a holy priest, a great priest, a sincere priest, pure priestly to the end. All the suffering and persecution he endured be healed by the joy of being in heaven with Jesus, our God, his loved ones, as he is dancing in the morning and as he lead us all in the dance! Your theological genius and love of our Lord took so many close to our Lord! God bless you Fr. Ken. I will miss you so much and as so many of us I love you also! We know you are heaven. Dear Fr. Ken, It was our honor and privilege to know you as our dear pastor and as a friend to the O'Neill family. We loved having you marry our daughter and be there when our son was married at Notre Dame.
