

Dcn. Ralph Wehner

Deacon

Deacon Ralph Wehner was born and raised in St. Louis, Missouri. He was the dietary director for a long-term care facility in Clayton Missouri when approached by Bishop Finn in 2009 to come to the diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph as the Director of the Office of Worship and Master of Ceremonies. He was ordained to the permanent diaconate in 2006 by his grace Archbishop Raymond Leo Burke. Deacon Ralph was assigned as prime Deacon to Archbishop Burke and as one of the principal catechists at the Cathedral Basilica and one of the Masters of Ceremonies.

Currently, Deacon Ralph serves as special assistant to the Bishop and directs the offices of Reclamation and Diocesan Special Events, as well as assisting in the Diocesan Archives. His relationship with Our Lady of Good Counsel began when he arrived in the diocese in 2009 and has continued to serve as Deacon to the parish.
