

Rev. Paschal Hardy

Born June 24, 1932, in Foxford, County Mayo, Ireland, Rev. Paschal Hardy now calls Inglewood home. His brother Dr. Robert Hardy lives there, and his mother Mrs. Emily Hardy is on her way from Foxford to make her home in the vicinity. His father Michael Hardy is deceased.

The ordinand attended the National School in Foxford, St. Nathy's College in Ballaghaderreen and St. Muredach's College, Ballina, before beginning his seminary studies at Mount Melleray in Cappoquin in 1949. He transferred to St. John's, Camarillo, in 1952.

Fr. Patrick Casey, pastor, will preach the sermon at the first Solemn Mass at noon April 29 in St. Eugene's Church. Fr. Patrick S. McGuinness will be archpriest; Fr. Timothy Doyle, deacon, and Fr. Matthew Delaney, subdeacon.