

NAME 2 PRIESTS TO NEW POSTS

Rev. Kevin J. McCarthy,
Rev. John F. Mooney Transferred

Transfers of two priests of the Diocese of Saint John were announced yesterday by Most Rev. P. A. Bray, C.J.M., bishop of Saint John. Rev. Kevin J. McCarthy, who has been assisting Rev. J. P. Butler, at St. Bernard's Church, Moncton, has been appointed curate to Very Rev. Michael O'Brien, Milltown. Rev. John F. Mooney, who has been assisting Dean O'Brien will succeed Father McCarthy at Moncton.

Father McCarthy was ordained to the priesthood at Holy Heart Seminary, Halifax, May 23, 1948, by Most Rev. J. T. McNally, archbishop of Halifax. A native of Lamaline, Nfld., he is a son of Ernest and the late Mrs. McCarthy. Due to the shortage of priests in Moncton archdiocese, Father McCarthy was assisting at St. Bernard's for the last two years, where he directed St. Bernard's Chapter, C.Y.O.

Father Mooney is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Harold Mooney, 137 King Street East, Saint John, and was ordained to the priesthood by Bishop Bray on June 3 of this year. Since ordination he has been chaplain of the Sea Cadet Camp at Mahone Bay, N. S., and for the last three months has been assisting in St. Stephen's Parish, Milltown.
