

Father Falvey Takes Faculty Job in Orient

Reverend Mark Falvey, S. J., son of Mrs. J. B. Falvey of 818 B street, leaves Monday for Shanghai, China, where he will teach at Gonzaga, an American college.

As a farewell to his parishioners of St. Clare's parish at Santa Clara, a solemn high mass will be celebrated tomorrow by Father Falvey assisted by two of his brothers, Rev. Arthur Falvey, S. J., deacon, and Rev. Robert Falvey, sub-deacon.

Rev. James J. Lyons, S. J., president of the University of Santa Clara, will be master of ceremonies. Rev. Zachary Maher, S. J., provincial of the California province of the Jesuit order, will deliver the sermon.

Besides teaching at the college Father Falvey will engage in parish work at Shanghai. He was a student as a small boy in San Mateo at the Central grammar school and went from there to Santa Clara. He entered the Jesuit order from San Mateo July 31, 1914 and was ordained June 20, 1928. He is the first alumnus of Santa Clara university to go to Chinese missions.

Since his ordination, Father Falvey has been engaged in parish work at St. Clare's parish. He will leave his home in San Mateo Monday for Portland and will sail from there aboard the General Pershing on September 6.

Rev. Arthur Falvey is the twin brother of Rev. Mark Falvey. He will be at Loyola High school, Los Angeles, during the coming year, teaching economics and religion. Rev. Robert Falvey is at St. Peter's church, San Francisco.

The Fathers Falvey are brothers of Elinor Louis Falvey, attorney; Dolores Falvey, teacher at the Lawrence school; Mother M. Laurentine, St. Joseph's academy, Prescott, Arizona; Sister M. Robertine, Academy of Our Lady of Peace, San Diego; and Charles and Norbert Falvey of San Mateo.
