

GONZAGA PRIESTS SERVE IN CHINA

Thirty-two Jesuit priests, Gonzaga university graduates, are members of the mission "behind the bamboo curtain" in China and Manila, according to a letter received at Gonzaga by the Rev. John Lipman, S. J., editor of "American Jesuits in China."

Four of them have sailed aboard the S. S. Jacob Luckenbach for China. They are the Rev. R. Meagher, S. J.; the Rev. T. Korn, S. J.; the Rev. Patrick Shaules, S. J., and the Rev. Alden Stevenson, S. J.

Other Gonzaga university Jesuits in China and Manila are:

Nanking—The Rev. Edward Murphy, the Rev. Joseph Donohoe, the Rev. Louis Dowd, the Rev. Philip Olinger and the Rev. Gerald Pope.

Yangchow—The Rev. Eugene Fahy, the Rev. William Ryan and the Rev. James Thornton.

Shanghai—The Rev. Thomas Phillips, the Rev. John Brennan, the Rev. Joseph Gatz, the Rev. Wilfred LeSage, the Rev. Leo McGreal, the Rev. John Palm, the Rev. Charles McCarthy, the Rev. John Clifford, the Rev. Frederic Foley, the Rev. Francis Rouleau, the Rev. George Donohoe, the Rev. Albert Klaeser and the Rev. Arthur Latham.

Manila—The Rev. Mark Falvey, the Rev. John Gordon, the Rev. James Kearney, the Rev. Phillip Bourret, the Rev. Ralph Brown, the Rev. Albert O'Hara and the Rev. R. Magner.
