

Traditional Latin Mass Society of Tagbilaran's Post

Traditional Latin Mass Society of Tagbilaran

August 14, 2024 · 🌐

🎉 Happy Birthday, Fr. Joseph Skelton Jr.! 🙏 As the sun rises on this milestone day, we gather to celebrate your journey—a path illuminated by faith, devotion, and unwavering commitment. 🙏

Fr. Joseph, your zeal for the Traditional Latin Mass has been a beacon of reverence, drawing the faithful into the sacred mysteries. Through the centuries-old chants, the incense rising, and the ancient prayers echoing, you have woven a tapestry of holiness that transcends time. 🙏

As you offer the Old Mass, your footsteps echo like psalms—a symphony of dedication. You've stood at the altar, hands outstretched, offering the Body and Blood—the very heartbeat of our faith. Your unwavering commitment to preserving the ancient liturgy has touched countless souls, bridging generations and binding us to the saints who knelt before us. ✨

Fr. Joseph, as you blow out the candles, may the flames carry our gratitude—a fragrant offering rising to the heavens. May your days be filled with grace, your nights with peace, and your heart with the joy of service. 🙏

Ad multos annos! To many more years of guiding us toward the eternal, of lifting our hearts in prayer, and of being a shepherd who leads with love. 🙏

: Psalm 42:4 – "These things I remember as I pour out my soul: how I used to go to the house of God under the protection of the Mighty One with shouts of joy and praise among the festive throng." : Hebrews 13:8 – "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever." : 2 Timothy 4:2 – "Preach the word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke and encourage—with great patience and careful instruction."

