

Son of Waldwick Resident To Be Ordained to Priesthood

WALDWICK—The Rev. William Thomas Gleeson, son of Mrs. James Gleeson of 80 Lilyan St., and the late James Gleeson will be ordained to the priesthood for the Diocese of Pueblo, Colo., on Saturday at Sacred Heart Cathedral, Newark, by Archbishop Thomas A. Boland. Father Gleeson will celebrate his first solemn mass at noon next Sunday in St. Patrick's Church, Jersey City. The Rev. David P. Gaffney, assistant pastor, will be archpriest. Deacon and subdeacon will be the Rev. Mr. William Huggins of Immaculate Conception Seminary, Conception, Mo., and the Rev. Mr. Patrick Sullivant of Maryknoll Seminary. Minor ministers will include Robert Keating, Thomas Swisstak, Thomas Dunne and Edmund Dillon. The Rev. James O. Sheerin, an Air Force Chaplain, recently returned from service in Viet Nam, will preach. Toastmaster at the dinner will be Dr. William J. Gleeson of Jersey City. Father Gleeson formerly resided at 203 Clerk Street, Jersey City, and attended Saint Patrick's Grammar School and Saint Aloysius High School. He took his Seminary studies at Immaculate Conception Seminary, Conception, Mo.

REV. WILLIAM T. GLEESON