

Five monks of St. Meinrad to celebrate 25th year

Five members of the St. Meinrad monastic community at St. Meinrad, will be celebrating their 25th year of monastic profession on May 11.

The five Benedictine monks are: Brothers Michael Kenealy, O.S.B.; Jerome Croteau, O.S.B.; and Columban O'Brien, O.S.B. and Fathers Robert Woerdeman, O.S.B. and Joseph Mort, O.S.B.

A special mass will be celebrated in the Archabbey Church at St. Meinrad at 11 a.m. on that day to honor the two priests and three brothers. A Jubilee dinner will be held in the monastic Dining Hall at 12:30.

Brother Kenealy, O.S.B., a Louisville, Ky. native, is currently Director of Transportation and Vestiarius in charge of the Archabbey Vestry Department.

Brother O'Brien, O.S.B., a Peru, native, is in charge of the Icon Shop in conjunction with the Abbey Art Studios.

Brother Croteau, O.S.B., a native of Belcourt, N.D., is currently assistant director of the archabbey landscaping department.

Father Joseph Mort, O.S.B., a native of Frederick, Md., is currently director of the Archabbey Forestry Department.

Father Robert Woerdeman, O.S.B., an Indianapolis native, is currently a chaplain in the U.S. Air Force with the rank of Major. He is stationed in Fairfield, Calif.