

Transition Retreat Is Offered

A retreat for "people in transition" will be held during the weekend of March 31-April 2 weekend at the El Pomar Renewal Center, 1661 Mesa Ave.

The director for the program will be the Rev. Marvin Kapushion, with Sister Helen Flaherty, S.C. as counselor.

The Rev. Kapushion, a clinical social worker in the Pueblo Diocese, is a family counselor and is licensed by the state of Colorado as a psychotherapist.

Sister Helen is vicar for religious for the Archdiocese of Denver, and an experienced counselor.

The retreat is designed for men and women who plan, or are undergoing, a change in life-style, career, relationships, understandings, faith, etc.

The program is designed to assist those who are at an intersection in life to recognize and appreciate the consciousness-raising event in which they are involved, according to the sponsors, to be encouraged to risk the openness the new situation demands, and to be renewed in faith, knowing that they are not alone on their journey.

The retreat begins at 7:30 p.m., Friday, March 31, and concludes at 3:30 p.m. the following Sunday. Suggested donation for the retreat is $42.40. Registration may be made by calling the center at 632-2451, or writing to El Pomar Renewal Center, 1661 Mesa Ave., Colorado Springs, 80906.

Rev. Marvin Kapushion